

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.-OCTOBER 6, 1853.

By Yesterday Evening's Mail.

LOCAL ITEMS.
CULPEPER ITEMS.—A drove of 136 stock cattle, from Tennessee, were purchased at Culpeper C. H., on Saturday, by some of our farmers, at $2.50 per hundred, gross.

Dr. Wm. M. Thompson has purchased, of Welch Grinnan, esq., a lot opposite the Episcopal Parsonage, containing 1½ acres, for $500, upon which he intends to erect a house and garden.

The drought is severely affecting the pumps about Culpeper C. H.

The town property belonging to the estate of the late Capt. A. P. Hill, was sold on Friday last. It consisted of two houses and lots, both of which were purchased by Thos. Hill, jr., one at $450, the other at $700.

The other house and corner lot, embracing store house and dwelling, had been previously sold to A. W. Wren, for $2,000.—Blue Ridge Republican.

WILLIAM AND MARY COLLEGE.—On the night of the 30th ult., the Visitors of this venerable college had a meeting at the Exchange Hotel, over which Ex-President John Tyler, the excellent Rector, presided. They appointed Elbridge S. Jaynes, esq., Professor of Greek and German—in excellent selection.

The Rev. Mr. Barnwell of South Carolina, having declined the Presidency of the College, which was tendered him, Mr. Ewell will act as President pro tem. With an able faculty, thoroughly made up, the old College cannot but add new laurels to those already won in the cause of education.—Rich. Eng.

ROBBERY.—On Sunday last, while Dr. Burrows pastor of the first Baptist church, Richmond, was preparing to baptize several persons at the second Baptist church, he had his gold watch stolen. Dr. B. had gone into the dressing room to array himself in suitable clothing for entering the pool, and in doing so left his watch in a chair. A young gentleman, who was one of the candidates for baptism, had left a new black coat in the same room, which was also stolen. The robber has not been detected.

The following figures represent the inspection of tobacco for the year ending September, 1852: Richmond, 44,616 hds.; Petersburg, 15,154 hds.; Lynchburg, 8,772 hds.; Farmville, 2,412 hds.; Charlottesville, 1,742 hds.; total, 72,090.
